Live bands, bingo and a bouncy castle at the South Lynn Fun Day!

South Lynn residents are invited to a jam packed day of activities, sport and live music for the South Lynn Fun Day on Sunday 5 July at Winfarthing Field.

The fun filled day will be kick started at 12pm with games and races organised by Adam Garford, Urban Sports Motivator. Throughout the day there will be something to interest all ages with raffles, stalls, bingo and tombolas stands. Live music will begin at 4pm with local band 'Voodoo Kiss' headlining the event, supported by other local talent. Younger children (or just big kids!) will be kept entertained by a bouncy castle.

James Cambridge, Trainee Neighbourhood Support Worker for Improving Neighbourhoods, commented: "This looks set to be a fantastic day! There really will be something for everyone happening over the course of the day, so please come along and join in the fun!"

Sally Webb-Jones, Chair of South Lynn Opportunities Group (SLOG), added: "The South Lynn fun day is a fantastic opportunity for the people in the area to get out and have some fun. It is also a great way for the local groups to promote themselves and raise some money. South Lynn is kicking the summer off in style."

Entry to the event is free and was designed as an opportunity for local community groups in the South Lynn area to raise money for their own funds and to promote the good work they are doing.

The South Lynn Fun Day has been organised by Improving Neighbourhoods and funded by the South Lynn Neighbourhood Partnership.
